Riverside, California—Full Circle Players (FCP) presents William Shakespeare's *Hamlet this October at The Box Riverside (above The Foodlab). The classic drama will be directed by award-winning director, Wendi Johnson, and will run from Thursday, Oct. 6, to Sunday, Oct. 16. With a talented and diverse cast, including Jared Sandoval as Hamlet, Jay K. Weldon as Claudius, and Janette Valenzano as Horatio, FCP takes on what is considered one of the most powerful tragedies in the English language and is widely regarded as the best of Shakespeare's work. Tickets are now available and can be purchased at hamlet67.brownpapertickets.com.

Director Johnson says, "It is a complete honor to work with such a talented group on this masterpiece. Everyone on this team is 'top notch' in both their acting and knowledge of Shakespeare. This play is so hauntingly incredible, each day new things are arising as we work through the text and breathe life into these ancient words. It is thrilling, truly."

With a run time of 2 hours and 30 minutes, the FCP production of Hamlet premieres on Oct. 6 with a variety of ticket and showtime options, including FCP's Pay-What-You-Can First Thursday on opening night. FCP's "Warm Welcome" program offers up to four tickets at $5 each when a patron shows their EBT card at the door. Student and military discount tickets are $10. General admission ranges from $18 to $25. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. on Oct. 6; at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 7-8, 14-15; and at 1:30 p.m. on Oct. 9 and 16.

"We know not what we are, but not what we may be." The story of subterfuge and masquerades as characters repeatedly attempt to present themselves other than as they are, or deliberately mislead one another creating a wide gulf that often exists between how things appear and how they really are. Follow The Prince of Denmark on a journey where the line between appearance and reality grows blurrier and blurrier as the play progresses.
